VI. CALLS

11. The Board may,from time to time,make such calls on uniform basis, as it thinks fit, upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares(whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) held by them respectively and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed time and each such member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person and at the time and places appointed by the Board. A call may be made payable by instalments.
12. Fourteen (14) days clear notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and the person to whom such call shall be paid.
13. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times, whether on account of the amount of shares or by way of premium every such amount of instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Board and of which due notice had been given and all provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly.
14. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of twelve(12)percent, per annum (or such other rate as the Board may determine) from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of the interest wholly or in part.
15. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the money so paid in advance, or so much thereof, as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding six(6) percent, per annum or as the member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon, Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividends or participation in profits. Money so paid in excess of the amount of call until appropriated towards satisfaction of any call shall be treated as advance to the Company and not a part of capital and shall be repayable at any time if the directors so decide.

VII. FORFEITURE OF SHARE

16. If any member fails to pay the whole or any part of any calls or instalment or any money due in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same the Directors may at any time there after during such time as the call or instalment or other money remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member, requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and the expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of non-payment.
17. The notice shall name a further day(not being less than 14 days from the date of notice) and a place on and at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment on or before the time and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
18. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payments of all calls, or instalment, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect and the forfeiture shall be recorded in Directors Minute Book. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before the forfeiture subject to the provisions of the Act.
19. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and entry of the forfeiture with date thereof shall forthwith be made in the register of the members.
20. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and the Directors may sell; re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
21. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member of the Company in respect of the forfeited share but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interests and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the date of the forfeiture, together with interest thereof at the rate of (9) percent, per annum from the time of forfeiture, until payment and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof, if they think fit.
22. The forfeiture of share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by Articles are expressly saved.
23. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or Managing Director, and that certain shares in the Company have duly been forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and such declaration, and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares and the person to whom the shares are sold, shall be registered as holder thereof and shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceeding in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.

VIII. LIEN ON SHARES

24. The Company shall have first and paramount lien upon all partly paid up shares registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and shall also have such lien upon the proceeds of sale thereof for his debts, liabilities and engagements, solely or jointly with any other persons to or with any Company whether in respect of the shares in question or otherwise, however whether the period for the payment, fulfilment or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and no equitable interest in any such shares shall be created except upon the footing and condition that provision of these articles are to have full effect and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares and unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.
25. No member shall exercise voting rights in respect of any shares registered in his name on which calls or other sums presently payable by him, have not been paid or in regard to which the Company has exercised any right of lien.
26. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Directors may sell the shares thereto in such manner as they think fit but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrator, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfilment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for (7) days after such notice.
27. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements of such member, his executors, administrators or representatives and the residue if any, shall subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the persons entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.
28. Upon any sale after forfeiture or surrender or enforcing a lien in purported exercise of powers herein before given, the Directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered, in the register of members in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only.

IX. TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION

29. Save as provided in the articles or unless all the members for the time being of the Company agree no shares shall be transferred or issued to a person who is not a member of the company so long as a member is willing to purchase the same at a fair value.
30.
