The first effect upon us is a very general one. It is a feeling of uneasiness, a sense of something being wrong. This feeling is often accompanied by a
 headache, a sore throat, or a general feeling of illness. In some cases, the symptoms are more pronounced, and may include a fever, a
 cough, or a runny nose.
 The cause of this
 feeling is often a
 change in the
 weather, or a
 change in the season. It is a very common
 experience, and
 is often accompanied by a
 headache, a
 sore throat,
 or a
 general
 feeling
 of illness.
