Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document. The text is written on aged, slightly stained paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. The words are difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and some ink bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text appears to be a formal or semi-formal communication, possibly a letter of introduction or a business document. The paper shows signs of wear, including a small tear at the top left corner and some discoloration.

Handwritten text in Odia script, oriented vertically on the page. The text is written in a cursive style and appears to be a list or a series of entries. The characters are somewhat faded and difficult to read precisely, but the structure suggests a list of items or names. The text is written from top to bottom, following the vertical orientation of the page.
