Handwritten text in Hindi, oriented vertically on the reverse side of the banknote. The text is written in a cursive style and appears to be a record or receipt. It includes the date '29/12/1922' and the amount 'दो रुपये' (Two Rupees). The text is written in dark ink on a light-colored background.

Handwritten text in Hindi, appearing to be a list or account. The text is written in a cursive style and includes several lines of entries, some with numbers and dates. The text is oriented vertically on the page.

Handwritten text in Hindi, continuing the list or account. It includes a circular stamp or mark in the center. The text is oriented vertically and appears to be a continuation of the entries from the top section.

Handwritten text in Hindi, located at the bottom of the page. It includes a signature and some additional notes or dates, oriented vertically.

Handwritten text in a script, likely Devanagari, written on a piece of paper with a decorative top edge. The text is arranged in approximately 20 horizontal lines, starting from the top and moving downwards. The script is cursive and somewhat faded. The paper has a decorative top edge with a scalloped or pointed shape. There are some faint markings and possibly a stamp or logo at the top center, but they are illegible. The overall appearance is that of an old, handwritten document or letter.
