PASSPORT

Don't lose this document

Lost or stolen passports provide criminals and terrorists with the opportunity to assume another identity, travel illegally and commit other crimes.

You are required by law to report the loss or theft of your passport as soon as possible. Such passports will be immediately and permanently cancelled and must not be used again. The Australian Passports Act 2005 imposes heavy penalties on anyone using a cancelled passport.

To replace a lost or stolen passport, you must pay an additional fee on top of the normal application fee. The additional amount will depend on the number of passports you have reported as lost or stolen in the previous five years.

- For one passport reported as lost or stolen, the additional fee is equal to one-third the cost of an ordinary adult passport;
- for two the fee is equal to the cost of an ordinary adult passport; and
- for three or more the fee is double the cost for an ordinary adult passport and the replacement passport will have limited validity.

Your passport identifies you protect it at all times
