“After purchasing being Plot No. P-104/B, Block No. F, New Alipore, I had a two storied house built thereon and occupied the same in May, 1952. I also had a separate garage block capable of housing two cars built at the same time. After retiring in 1963, I had the third storey constructed along with some extensions at the back (north-east side) for dressing rooms, bath rooms, verandah, and stairs connecting the main building with the roof of the garage block. In 1991, I received my share of the sale proceeds of my father's house at 48, Hanuman Road, New Delhi and then thought of constructing flats at the back for my two daughters. I had the plan sanctioned by Calcutta Municipal Corporation in 1993, the plan involved the demolition of garage block and the extensions at the back which had been made in 1963 – 1964 and the incorporation of the north-east living room of each of the three floors of older building into the new flats. Work in accordance with the plan was started in January, 1994 and the flats were fit for occupation by the end of the year. My daughters with their families moved into their flats in July, 1995. My sons occupy and will continue to occupy the floors that they are occupying: Ranjan of the ground floor, Bijan of the first floor and Satyendra of the second floor of the older building less the north-east living rooms; Manjarini of the second floor flat of the new construction and a living room and bath room on the roof of the older construction; Indrani of the first floor of the new construction with the ground floor north-east living room of the older construction; and both shall be in common possession of the ground floor reception rooms and stairs, and the rooms in the mezzanine floor as servants' living rooms and both rooms and wash and store rooms.

Under the mezzanine floor is the garage space where my sons and daughters will by amicable arrangement keep their cars and use the space for various functions on dates fixed by mutual arrangement.

The Municipal tax payable for all the flats will be shared equally by my five heirs with effect from first quarter of 1996 – 97; the assessment will remain in my name during my lifetime. Thereafter my sons and daughters will become full owners of their flats; they will get the flats registered in their separate names and have separate assessments and will pay their separate assessments.

None of the owners of the flats shall be entitled to sell or let out his or her flat without the consent of all the owners so long as any of my direct heirs survive. Each flat owner shall bear the cost of maintenance of his or her flat work like painting or white washing the outer sides of the walls if done by the same mistri shall be shared according to the area belonging to the sons or the daughters; that is for work done outside the part of the building belonging to the sons, the sons shall be responsible and they will each bear one third of the total cost for which the sons are liable
