in Oahu Hawaii

- which is about 1000 ft - probably about 1000 ft - high. It is a large tree with a very thick trunk and large branches. The leaves are large and green.
The flowers are white and fragrant. The fruit is yellow and juicy. The bark is smooth and brown. The wood is very hard and durable.
It is a very popular tree in Hawaii.

grasses - grasses are common. Some of the more common grasses include the following: - 1. Kauai grass - This is a tall grass that grows well in the wetter areas of the island. It is commonly found in the valleys and along the streams. It has long, narrow leaves and is often used for thatching roofs. It is also used for making mats and baskets.
2. Maui grass - This is a shorter grass that grows well in the drier areas of the island. It has shorter, broader leaves than Kauai grass. It is often used for pasture and for thatching roofs.

✓ 3. Oahu grass - This is a short grass that grows well in the drier areas of the island. It has shorter, broader leaves than
pasture and for thatching roofs. It is also used for making mats and baskets.
4. Maui grass - This is a shorter grass
that grows well in the drier areas of the island. It has shorter, broader leaves than
pasture and for thatching roofs.
