Present : Sri G.R. Bhattacharjee, District judge.

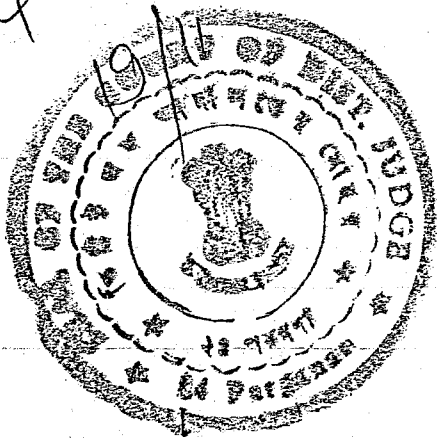

Misc case no. 267 of 1988.

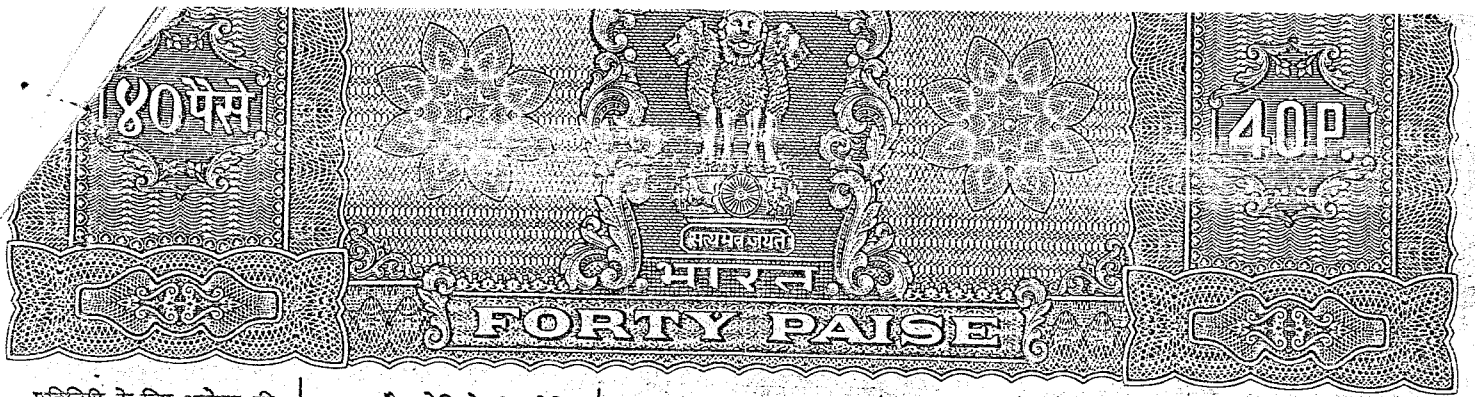

Sri Ganesha chandra Bhattacharjee.

Order no, 2, dated 16.9.88 : Petitioner files hazira and certain documents. As prayed for, the case is taken up for hearing. Heard. This is an application filed by one Ganesha chandra Bhattacharjee, who happens to be the sole Sebait to the Debutter estate of the Deity 'Jagaddal', praying for permission to sell the property as described in the schedule to the petition. It is stated that the yields of the property is too meagre to carry on the seva puja of the deity and other religious performances, that he is unemployed and he has no sufficient personal income to carry on with the seva puja of the deity regularly as directed by the settlor and that by the proposed sale, he will be able to renovate the Mandir and secure a regular source of income for the Seva puja for which the debutter had been intended. But it is stated that the property is a private Debutter and for the purpose of dealing with the same, the permission of the Court is not necessary. The petitioner who is the sole Sebait is at liberty to deal with the
