Introduction

IVY Greens in Rajarhat, Kolkata

IVY Greens is a part of Vedic Village, located just behind its farm bungalows. It is therefore more than a housing enclave, it is the passport to the serene pleasure of an international spa resort.

As a resident you can enjoy all the leisure and dining facilities of vedic village, including membership of V-Den with its underground entertainment zone and sporting facilities.

Also close by is the upcoming greentech city, a township built around a golf course and IT park. The expanding amenities of the neighborhood ensure your investment will keep appreciating.

Each IVY Greens apartment is designed to let in plenty of sun and breeze. The two private balconies which overlook the lawns add to be experience of the fresh and natural.

The 990 sqft apartment features 2 bedroom, living and dining rooms. An ergonomically designed kitchen and two well appointed bathrooms ensure comfortable living.

Apartments and common areas are finished for sophisticated tastes. The IVY growing outside not only makes the building look artistic but also keeps it cooler in summer.
