Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, continuing the ledger entries. It includes numerical values and descriptive notes, similar to the text above.
