

CERTIFIED COPY

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

KO-KAI MINING CORPORATION
No. 2015/112/102
No. 2015/112/102
No. 2015/112/102

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

The Building Department has reviewed the plans and specifications and has approved them for construction. The approval is based on the information provided and does not constitute a warranty of fitness for use or of freedom from defects. The approval is subject to the provisions of the Building Code of the City of Los Angeles.

Approved by: [Signature]
The Building Committee

MASTER PLAN FOR THE City of Los Angeles
Planning Department

Multiple copies of 'CERTIFIED COPY' stamps and official seals, including the City of Los Angeles seal, arranged in a grid-like pattern. Each stamp contains text regarding the approval of plans and specifications for construction.