Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act 2013(the Act). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluation the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principle generally accepted in India:

- i. In the case of the balance sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March 2017 and

NOTES FORMING PART OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of Significant Accounting Policies, which have been applied consistently are set out below:

Accounting Convention

The financial statements are prepared under historical cost convention on accrual basis.

1.2 Use of Estimates:

The presentation of financial statements requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual result and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/materialized

1.3 Fixed Assets

- (a) Fixed Assets are stated at cost.
- (b) Fixed Assets other than Leasehold Land and computer software (included in machinery and Equipments) are depreciated under Straight Line Method over their respective estimated useful lives worked out on the basis of rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. In case of additions /deletions during the financial year, depreciation is provided on pro rata basis.
- (c) Leasehold land is amortized over the period of lease.

1.4 Capital Work in Progress

These are stated at cost.

1.5 Inventories are valued as under:

- (a) Raw materials and components at cost. Cost is determined under weighted average formula.
- (b) Finished goods and work-in-progress at cost or net realizable value, whichever is lower. Cost comprises of cost of materials and appropriate share of overheads.
- (c) Stock hired out at agreement value less amount due.
- (d) Obsolete, defective and unserviceable stock items are duly provided for.
- (e) Certain LED are retained at 5% value following the principle of conservatism.

1.6 Foreign Currency Conversion

Transactions in foreign currency are accounted for at exchange rates prevailing on the date of transaction. Year-end foreign currency balances of Borrowings, Current Assets and Current Liabilities are translated at the appropriate year-end rates. Resultant exchange difference (gain or loss) is dealt with in the Profit and Loss Account. Exchange differences relating to liabilities incurred for acquisition of Fixed Assets is adjusted in the carrying value of the related Fixed Assets.

1.7 Research & Development Expenditure

Revenue expenditure on Research and Development is charged to revenue in the year in which it is incurred. Capital expenditure on research and development is treated as addition to fixed assets.

1.8 Know-how
