

Whilst as per the West Bengal Fire Service Act any standalone structure not exceeding 14.5 meters in height , does not require a full fledged fire fighting arrangement – in our case , although it is a single standalone structure and not a housing complex comprising of multiple Towers , not exceeding the height criteria, yet we have made provisions for necessary fire fighting facilities for the structure to be constructed in this phase of the project .