

Building of building materials on / Building two public roads is illegal, and the jurisdiction of any construction work must be done with the proper permits and within the right time frame. Otherwise, any work performed will be illegal.

Transfer of occupancy / Right of any part of the building structure is illegal.

While the transfer of any part of the building structure is illegal, the transfer of the building structure as a whole is legal.

When the building is in the process of construction,
it is illegal to transfer any part of the building structure. However, once the building is completed, the transfer of any part of the building structure is legal.

When the building is in the process of construction,
it is illegal to transfer any part of the building
structure. However, once the building is
completed, the transfer of any part of the building structure is legal.